

INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. I.

STANFORD, LINCOLN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, AUGUST 2, 1872.

NO. 22.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

IS PUBLISHED IN
STANFORD, KENTUCKY.

EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

OFFICE—SOUTH SIDE MAIN STREET, (17 STAIRS).

HILTON & CAMPBELL, Proprietors.

TERMS—Two Dollars per Year in Advance.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

One inch insertion a square.

One dollar per inch for first insertion, 50 cents for each subsequent insertion. Double column advertisements 50 per cent additional. Local notices 15 cents per line. Marriage notices, obituaries, &c., over ten lines

5 cents per line.

All transient advertisements must be paid for in ad-

ance.

All bills due on first insertion of advertisement.

Not to credit for any bill for each word in gold.

Money due before the first word is written. We will not vary from these terms.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

A. F. MERRIMAN,

SURGEON DENTIST,

STANFORD, KY.

Office—Corner Masonic Block.

GEO. B. MOORE. W. D. HOPPER.

MCKEE & HOPPER,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW,

LANCASTER, KY.

H. T. HARRIS,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

STANFORD, KY.

Will practice in the Courts of Lincoln, Casey,

Garrard, Rockcastle, Boyle and Madison and in the Court of appeals.

N. B. Discharges in bankruptcy secured promptly and at reasonable rates.

R. C. WARREN,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

STANFORD, KY.

OFFICE—East side Court Square.

THOS. W. VARNON,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

STANFORD, KY.

OFFICE—in Court.

G. W. DUNLAP,

LANCASTER, KY.

DUNLAP & COOPER,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW AND COLLECTORS,

STANFORD, KY.

BUSINESS SOLICITED IN LINCOLN

and adjoining counties.

WM. G. WELCH,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

STANFORD, KY.

OFFICE—First room over Dr. McRobert's office.

HOTELS.

LANCASTER HOTEL,

[Late Hotel]

LANCASTER, KENTUCKY.

A GOOD BAR.

EXCELLENT STABLE, &C.

44 R. L. GREYSAIN, Prop'r.

MASON HOUSE,

Stanford Street,

LANCASTER, KENTUCKY.

Keeps a Good Stable.

44 JAS. B. MASON, Prop'r.

ALEXANDER'S HOTEL

Cor. Main and Eighth Streets,

LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY.

LOCATED IN THE CENTER OF THE

largest Wholesale Houses and Tobacco

Warehouses. Furnished and fitted new throughout, in the best style.

FARE $2.00 per Day.

1-6m ALEXANDER & CO., Prop'r's.

CHAR. H. HATCHER. DAVID BELL.

Formerly of Lexington, Ky.

NATIONAL HOTEL,

Cor. Main and Fourth Streets,

LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY.

Refitted and Refurnished.

Fare $2.50 per Day.

HATCHER & BELL, Prop'r's.

CARPENTER HOUSE,

Corner Main and Somerset Streets,

STANFORD, KENTUCKY.

HAVING LEASED THIS CENTRAL

Hotel, for a term of years, which is situated on court square, and having refitted

the same in good style, I am prepared to entertain all who call on me. The traveling public will find this a convenient stopping place.

An Excellent Stable

convenient to the house.

At the Bar.

Pure liquors, cigars, tobacco, &c.

1st DAVID GARVIN, Proprietor.

HARRIS HOUSE,

East Side Main Street,

CRAB ORCHARD, KENTUCKY.

THE BAR WELL SUPPLIED.

A Good Stable, Etc.

13-17 M. J. HARRIS, Proprietor.

FROM MONTICELLO.

MONTICELLO, KY., July 24th, 1872.

Correspondence Interior Journal.

AYERS SENTENCED.

The Governor, after considering the matter for a considerable time, has finally decided that the sentence of the Court

in the case of Ayers, shall be executed

on Friday 30th of August next.

During the war Ayers and Bell (claiming to be Federal soldiers) arrested Marion Dafton, of this county, a soldier in the Confederate army, but at that time

home on a furlough on account of sickness, and pretended that they were going to take him to Col. Bramlette's regiment

at the time stationed near Jamestown,

Kentucky.

After leaving the house of Mr. Ethay-

non Dafton, the prisoner's father, a short distance they halted for some purpose

when Mr. Dafton and a neighbor of his

came up with them and tried to prevail

upon them to release his son. Bell, however, leveled his gun upon them and declared that he would kill them if they did not leave the spot immediately, and

was actually preparing to execute his threat upon the person of Mr. Dafton

when Ayers interfered and prevented it.

Shortly afterwards they heard reports of the gun and pistols in the direction of the party, and as soon as they thought safe

returned to the spot and found young

Dafton dead, his body pierced by some

five or six gun and pistol balls.

Ayers and Bell were arrested in Bar-ren county two or three years ago and lodged in jail at this place. At the last

November term of our court Ayers was put upon trial, found guilty of murder

and sentenced to be hung on the second

Saturday of February. A short time

before the day of execution he, with some

three or four others, made his escape, by cutting through the iron grating of the cell, and made his way into Illinois under the name of Crabtree. He says that his wife revealed his real name to a lady

with whom they were stopping who communicated it to the sheriff and in May

last he was returned to jail here.

Bell, his accomplice, confessed that he was party to the killing of Dafton and

without trial was sentenced by the court

to twenty years imprisonment in the penitentiary. He afterwards acknowledged that he did the killing and that Ayers

had no hand in it. From this a petition was gotten up and sent to the Governor

asking him to commute the sentence of the court to twenty years in the penitentiary also. The result is stated above.

Public sentiment is opposed to the execution of Ayers, inasmuch as the guilty

party receives a milder punishment.

THE CANDIDATES.

The aspirants for nomination of the Democratic party in the next Congressional race were with us on Monday the 22nd inst. Col. Hoskins led off in an able and forcible manner, showing up

the corruptions of the Radicals in the matter of class and sectional legislation, &c.

Col. Talbott spoke next for some fifteen minutes, during which time of the great

questions that have sprung out of war

and the present policy of the Radical

party passed in review before him with

the rapidity of a drama, and if he had

power for only a short time, would dispose of all our troubles in the way of national debt, &c., in a perfectly off-hand

manner. The remainder of his time was taken up in personal explanations and endeavors to show that he was a more

consistent Democrat than his competitors,

and especially that he was "better blue"

than Judge Durham.

The Judge's time was mostly consumed

in answering the speech of Col. Talbott,

or rather explaining the matters of a personal nature presented in Talbott's speech.

He closed by appealing to the Democratic voters of Wayne county to support the nominees of the Cincinnati Convention.

DIED.

I have to record the death of another

of our old and respected citizens.

Mrs. Elizabeth Warden died at her residence in this place on the 17th inst. She,

for a number of years, had been an invalid and had endured an immense amount of suffering with that patient

fortitude which those prompted by the christian's hope alone can exhibit. Mrs.

Warden, for the greater portion of her life, was a faithful member of the Methodist church.

AN AFFRAY.

The usual quiet of our village was broken on yesterday by an affray between

Col. Alexander and Mr. J. T. Wilhite.

We understand that the assault was made by the Colonel. No serious damage done

to either party.

We have had a large amount of rain

recently and at present indications are favorable for a continuance of wet

weather. Weather sultry. Thermometer 85° in the shade.

I have other items which I will reserve

for my next.

OCCASIONAL.

Educational.

One of our correspondents at Monticello sends us the following, which we publish with great pleasure, and to which

we invite the especial attention of school

FROM PINE HILL.

PINE HILL, KY., July 24th, 1872.

Correspondence Interior Journal.

EDUCATION.

Our county Board of examiners consisting of R. C. McBeath, commissioner,

and J. Smith Frisbie and Marcus L.

Fleming, held a session of two days during last week for the purpose of examining teachers for the common schools.

Some forty teachers were in attendance,

and formed a large and interesting class.

The exercises were entertaining and instructive. Mr. McBeath makes a splen-

dly alive to the cause of education, and to the necessity of making teaching a profession adapted to developing the finer and nobler feelings of the human heart. The following appropriate remarks were made by him to the class before the exercises begun, and which I

obtained his permission to have published

in your valuable journal:

"LADIES AND GENTLEMEN: You

have assembled for the purpose of undergoing an examination the object of which is to test your ability to instruct, discipline and govern a school in accordance with the requirements of common school

laws of Kentucky. I desire that each of you will act with deliberation, and

be entirely self-possessed, so that your examination will be a fair exhibition of your knowledge of the sciences. I assure you, most positively, that it is not the intention of this Board to conduct the examination in such a manner as to embarrass or confuse you, but by fair and

proper interrogatories to ascertain your

knowledge of the sciences contained in the common school course, and your ability to impart the same to others.

Believing that the only method we have of ascertaining your knowledge of

scientific principles is by testing your ability to clothe the same in words, we must necessarily ask you a great many questions. These shall not be abstruse or unnecessarily technical. If, at any time, a question is propounded, the object of which you do not understand,

you should not attempt an answer until

it is given in a plain and comprehensive manner. Every improper answer or failure to answer will stand against you.

We shall not confine you to any particular text book. Our object is to examine you with reference to science and not authors. It matters not what authority's work you may have studied, nor

with what words you may express your ideas, so they are clear and well defined.

If you understand the science it is of little consequence who is the author of the book from which this knowledge has been derived. That old, absurd and foolish notion, once prevalent among teach-

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 2, 1872.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT.

HORACE GREELEY,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

B. GRAY BROWN,

OF MISSOURI.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL.

HON. W. S. PRYOR,

OF MISSOURI.

DEMOCRATIC ELECTORS.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, of Charleston.

THE CENTRAL GREELEY

CLUB.

We had some fears that the call made for a meeting in the courthouse on last evening at 2 o'clock, for the purpose of forming a Greeley Club,

could not be responded to by enough to form a quorum. These fears were based upon the fact that our Fair had just closed

and the people were weary by a two days attendance thereat. Our fears were soon dispelled however, for upon the ringing of the bell about seventy-five

citizens of our town and county came in,

and after a speech by T. P. Hill, in which he gave a brief account of the condition of public affairs, and stated

the object of the foundation of such clubs, (namely, to break Grant's head with.) Thus W. Varon, Esq., was made permanent President, and John M.

Phillips, Secretary. Whereupon some sixty

old voters enrolled their names, each

man giving his own signature to the roll.

Each man, too, seemed determined to do

and dare any and everything honorable

to aid in securing the defeat of Grant. Old men and young men, like those who signed our immortal Declaration of Independence, came forward and placed

their names upon the book, and we feel sure that no one of the signers of that

ancient document, had the good and glory of our beloved country more at heart

than those who signed the Greeley Club

at the courthouse in Stanford on last Saturday evening. Our object is to disseminate information of a political

kind—such as books, papers, pamphlets,

speeches, and etc., so that all the people,

rich and poor, black as well as white,

may learn the true condition of public affairs. We intend to invite able and gifted men from various parts of the State to address the Club from time to time during the canvass. The Club

adjourned to meet again to-morrow

evening at 3 o'clock. Let every one who joined the Club last Saturday, be on hand

promptly at the ringing of the bell, and

let each one bring at least one more man

with him. We must have 200 members.

Much good can and will be accomplished by these organizations.

Don't stand back and think that we can't get along without your aid. We want you all to join in the battle—enlist for the Campaign—fight it out, and a glorious victory will be won. It is not a leap in the air, but a steady march.

Let us meet at the Club, for we want you

at all quarters of the county, to join

the Central Greeley Club, and then we desire that a Club be raised in every

voting precinct of the county, to act in conjunction with this. Remember this,

fellows, that to-morrow evening at 3

o'clock, the second Club meeting will be held and speeches made.

YOUNG MEN'S GREELEY

CLUB.

We see that several of our young men are forming separate clubs. This is right. No one can doubt that the young Democracy of the Nation

can do a vast amount of good for any

PRIMARY ELECTION.

In pursuance of the action of the Democratic Convention of the Eighth Congressional District, recently held at Stanford, Ky., directing that a Primary election

be held on the first Monday in August

for the purpose of selecting a Democratic candidate for Congress, in said District.

It is ordered by the Democratic Executive Committee for Lincoln county, that a poll be opened at each voting precinct

in said county on said day, for the holding of such primary election, and the following persons are appointed to hold said

election in the several precincts of the county:

Turnersville—John O. Neal, Fayette

Green and J. D. Alcorn.

Walnut Flat—John M. Hall, Craig

Lynn and Tol Douglas.

Crab Orchard—F. F. Bobbitt, Arch

Carson and E. D. Pennington.

Stanford—T. T. Davies, H. S. Withers and G. K. Nolan.

Higland—R. B. Henson, Lewis Ball

and Max Delaney.

Waynesburg—J. P. Gooch, Shelby

McMullen and Harvey Ellison.

Hustoville—Green Jones, Wm. Lucas and Benj. Hawkins.

In holding said election the persons

hereby appointed are to be governed by the resolutions adopted at the Convention

afforementioned, lately held at Stanford.

Should any of those appointed to hold

said election decline, or fail to do so, the Democratic voters of the precinct will

appoint a substitute to act in his stead.

By order of the Committee,

T. R. MONTGOMERY, Chm.

STANFORD, KY., August 1, 1872.

Fallen.

As a general thing, man can get drunk

and behave otherwise immorally, and

yet retain the respect and confidence of his fellowmen, provided he will reform.

But if a minister of the gospel be guilty

of a single offense of the kind, there is no hope for him. In this respect, people

look upon him as they do upon a woman

who is similarly guilty—as absolutely

destroyed, and for him or her there is no possibility of escape. We copy from an exchange a brief account of the "rise

and fall" of a gifted Presbyterian clergyman who belongs to the Northern Assembled branch of that church. We are not of that class who think that such conduct as the Rev. Mr. G. H. Robertson,

was guilty of, will strike any serious

blow to the church or the cause of religion. Why should it do so any more than a dishonest bank officer would strike

a blow against all such officers?—or any more than a dishonest Mason or Odd

Fellow would strike a serious blow at those Orders! There are black sheep in every flock. There are rogues in every order. There are thieves in every profession. There are liars in every station and degree of life. We lament such conduct, but do not renounce

the church or the cause of Christ.

Colonel Thomas Scott on Texas.

Colonel Thomas A. Scott, the greatest railroad representative living, in a speech

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Tom Lowery, the North Carolina desper-

ado is certainly dead. Andrew

Strong and Stephen Lowery, the two remaining members of the gang, have

sworn vengeance on the men who killed

their devilish comrades. General Pleasanton, late Commissioner of Internal Revenue, corroborates the statement made by Carl Schurz in his speech at St. Louis,

that he was offered by the President all

the patronage of the Government that he desired if he would support his Santa

Domingo scheme. General P. says: "I may console myself with the reflection

that this is the first time that any statement of mine has been questioned, while

the President has had occasion before

this to test the accuracy of his recollection." Senator Sumner's reception in North Carolina was magnificent. Christine Nilsson was married to M. Rouzeau on Saturday last. Carl Schurz

made a speech at Greensboro, N. C., on Saturday last. A. T. Stewart

testifies that a subscription list was presented to him for a donation for the purpose of purchasing the Long Branch cottage for "sensible lotting" purposes, and

that Tom Murphy's name was on it for $5,000. Tom has associated with the President till he has learned to—make mistakes. The Kenton county Liberals are misbehaving by supporting Grant

men for county offices against the regular Democratic nominees who are Greeley men. The Covington Journal calls

upon them to explain. The $75,000

"Confederate Archives" show that, as the Federal troops were burning Southern towns, the Confederacy proposed to retaliate by burning Northern cities, and

that Horace Greeley was anxious to bring about peace. Senator Thurman

says that Greeley is certain of two hundred electoral votes without counting

Ohio. The Geneva goose has hatched

no golden eggs yet. A Bostonian sees

the end of the world will positively

occur before the Presidential election.

Senator Doolittle believes his name—he is,

the hardest worker in the campaign.

The bright little city of Juneville

Wisconsin was disgraced a few days ago,

by the hanging of Greeley and Brown,

in effigy. This is one way of conducting a campaign, but it is a ruinously

that will injure the office-holders

candidate among men of honor. Goldsmith Maid best Lacy at Cincinnati

Friday in three straight heats. Time,

2:19, 2:17, 2:21. Four persons were carried over Niagara Falls Friday and drowned. John R. Craven, of Mari-

son, has been nominated by the Democracy of Indiana for Lieutenant Governor, vice DePauw declined. He is a Liberal Republican. Senator Sumner

fired a double-barreled cannon at Greeley on Tuesday last. Governor Brown

delivered his first elaborate address

stating his nomination at the ratification

meeting in Frankfort on Tuesday last.

Gen. Grant is still on the wing. He left Long Branch on Monday last for a three weeks trip to the Thousand Is-

SPECIALS.

Out of the abundance of the heart

the mouth speaketh. He that hath business in him will talk business.

Success in business is secured through persistent

THROUGH THE VALLEY OF ACHOR.

Reported by a Minister on the Part of a Prominent Minister.

A SAD STORY.

From the Courier-Journal.
About twelve months since, the Rev. Gilbert H. Robertson, then the Pastor of a Presbyterian Church in Springfield, Illinois, was called to the pastorate of the Presbyterian Church in this city—corner of Fourth and Chestnut streets, in connection with the Northern Assembly.

Mr. Robertson took charge of the Church we believe, in September. The congregation, one of the largest and wealthiest in the city, had been for some months without a pastor, and was in a languishing and disturbed condition.

The call to Mr. R. was made with great unanimity, and his coming was hailed with pleasure and satisfaction. Entering upon his duties he seemed to give new life to the church, the attendance at once rapidly increased, and the future promised a season of great usefulness and many blessings.

The new pastor was earnest and unflinching in his work. In the pulpit and in the discharge of his pastoral duties, he won the hearts of his flock, and made himself, wherever he went, sympathizing and admiring friends. Indeed, he may be said to have taken a position in the advance with the most distinguished and best beloved of the ministers of our city. A sermonizer of more than ordinary culture and attainments, of finished manners and winning address, apparently devoted, as he was active and untiring in the work of the church, he became a man of mark in our community, commanding the respect, the confidence, and sympathy of all good people.

A few days since his congregation voted him a leave of absence from his ministerial labors until the 1st of September next, that he might recruit his health, and escape from the heat and dust of the city. On Sabbath evening last he preached to a crowded and appreciative audience his farewell sermon, and it was most appropriate and touchingly beautiful. His text was Hosea 2-10: "And the Valley of Achor for a door of Hope," and there occurred in the sermon this passage:

"Afflictions make this world now often as a wilderness. They bring us down into this Valley of Achor, this place of trouble. I tell you, then, that the afflictions that come upon us, then would I give the history of my long ago. Of few days and full of trouble. There are the defects of worldly life. There is the loss of earthly property. There is the loss of human friendship. There is the loss of the love of the world. There are the strokes of adversity that fill the whole soul with bitterness; that shatter the texture of the finest and lowest spirit; that leave us down in these glooms where the whole life seems one wretched defeat. It is the Valley of Achor through which we are passing now. We cry out in this intolerable agony of our spirit."

Poor fallen, wretched, ruined and miserable man. Verily, it is the Valley of Achor through which he is passing now, and from which he, no doubt, this night cries out in the intolerable agony of a crushed and broken spirit.

While the gifted minister was delivering them his farewell sermon the tongue of rumor was busy circulating the story of his wicked practices, of his temptation and his fall.

The statement is that on Monday evening of last week Mr. Robertson left this city without notice to any member of his congregation and went to Chicago, and on Wednesday afternoon he made his appearance at the depot in Chicago, accompanied by a woman, and purchasing tickets for Louisville, engaged a section in a sleeping-car, which they occupied in common. He was recognized by the conductor, and perhaps, by others. He was under the influence of liquor, and his conduct and that of his companion was such as to attract the passengers. He returned to this city after some delay on the road at 10:45 p. m. on Thursday. On Friday afternoon, between two and three o'clock, he was again at the depot in Louisville, with a small traveling satchel, and there purchased a ticket for Chicago, and shortly afterwards brought into a car a woman closely veiled. Here, it is said, he was again in a state of helpless intoxication, reeling and falling about the car, and talking wildly and incoherently. Here he was encountered by a distinguished minister of this city, who recognized him. Shortly after the car left he sank to sleep on the seat of the section he had engaged, and at Franklin, Indiana, the place of meeting of the Louisville and Chicago trains, he left the sleeping car and took the train for this city.

Mr. Robertson remained in the city until Monday evening last, when he left for Ohio, whither his family had preceded him some weeks since. The rumors current, before he left in regard to his conduct, were communicated to him, and he was advised to remain and confront them; but he declined, saying he had agreed to meet his wife at Cincinnati, and must do so.

On Tuesday he was telegraphed and urged to return. No answer was received to the telegram, but a letter came from him on yesterday which, while denying the accusations in part, fails to meet them in such a manner as to leave any hope that they are in any essential particular untrue.

These, we believe, are the facts as they are known to the public, and, as we are most deeply pained to be compelled to say, are almost universally believed to be true. The sickening, painful, and disgusting details we have not felt it our duty to publish.

And what shall be said of him, the author of all this shame and wrong to the cause of the Master whom he professed to serve? Let the answer come from himself. In his sermon of Saturday night last, he said:

"God says of Israel as of a wife that had forsaken her husband and gone after another lover: I gave her corn and wine and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they prepared for Baal. It was a fearful accusation. God blessed me with abundance of wealth and outward good, and they sacrificed to vanity and sensual indulgence; they made ornaments out of the gold and silver to decorate their idol. Pride, they pour the anointed treasure at the feet of Mammon. The punishment threatened, and which at last, is in terrible keeping with the offense."

ITEMS WORTH READING.

Ice cream is frozen by steam at Columbia, South Carolina.

It takes $600 worth of gold leaf to decorate a first-class sleeping car.

So far eight hundred dead bodies have been recovered from the ruins at Antioch.

An extensive mint of counterfeit nickels was recently broken up in New Orleans.

A lady in Richmond, Virginia, has ordered a forty-two dollar pair of stockings for her wedding.

The East river bridge in New York has cost about $63,000,000 already and is only just begun.

One-tenth of the entire population of the United States is dependent upon the production of iron for support.

Those who would successfully persuade others to the practice of total abstinence, must themselves abstain.

In portions of Pennsylvania, the potato-bug has been comparatively idle this season, and potatoes are sold at ten cents a bushel.

Grant-and-Wilson pencils have appeared in Pittsburgh. They are not likely to be consumed in footing up Grant's majorities.

The editor of a western paper having received a bank note directory returned thanks, and modestly asks for some bank notes upon which to test its accuracy.

A professor of the art of self-defense, lately arrived from Europe, furnishes his pupils with a pocket apparatus for injecting vitriol into the eyes of assailants.

On the platforms of horse-cars this will be invaluable.

DRY GOODS

—AT—

McALISTER & MILLER'S

BOOTS AND SHOES

—AT—

McALISTER & MILLER'S

Hats, Caps, Ladies Dress Goods

—AT—

McALISTER & MILLER'S

CLOTHING

—AND—

Furnishing Goods.

—AT—

McALISTER & MILLER'S

WANTED

20,000

Bushels of Wheat

—AT—

McALISTER & MILLER'S

Bargains Offered

—AT—

McALISTER & MILLER'S

NOTICE!

Wheat! Wheat!! Wheat!!!

10,000 bushels Wheat Wanted!

Apply to

A. OWSLEY,

DEALER IN

Groceries and Hardware,

Stanford, Ky.

RYE.

—ALE! ALE!

A. GENSLE,

DEALER IN

A. TEMPLETON'S

OLD

CREAM ALE!

Wholesale and Retail.

BY DEALING WITH HIM PERSONS

CAN GET THE BEST ALE FOR

LESS MONEY. THAN BY

SENDING TO LOUIS-

VILLE OR CIN-

CINNATI.

To my Customers.

My accounts will be closed July 1st, 1872.

If you have the money I will take

it. If you have neither money nor wheat, come in and close your accounts by

note. 10 per cent. will be charged on all accounts overdue.

I cannot sell groceries on 6 and 12 months' time.

(17) A. OWSLEY.

BLACKSMITHING.

—AND—

WAGON MAKING.

THE UNDERSIGNED IS NOW PREPARED

to do all kinds of blacksmithing,

wagon making and repairing at the lowest prices. Shop North Side Main Street,

Stanford, Kentucky.

—16m— WM. DAUGHERTY.

P. F. WALSH,
MERCHANT TAILOR,
No 70 Fourth street bet. Main and Market,
Louisville, Ky.

My pantalon system, as a specialty, is an acknowledged success, being original, and adapted to the needs of every customer.

MATHEW L. WRIGHT,
PAINTER,
WEST END, STANFORD, KY.

RESPECTFULLY solicits work in his line. Will contract to work by the job

and furnish material, or by the day, at reasonable prices. Very Low.

S. D. MYERS,
Undertaker,
East Main Street, STANFORD, KENTUCKY

Keeps constantly on hand

METALIC CASES,

CASKETS and SHROUDS.

WOODEN COFFINS

PREPARED TO FURNISH PICTURE

frames and mirror plates of all styles

and sizes. All kinds of furniture repaired.

Turns cash or thirty days with note, negotiable and payable at one of the Stanford

Banks. N. B. All those indebted to me are requested to come forward and settle up immediately.

S. D. MYERS.

WHEAT.

Physicians prescriptions carefully and skillfully compounded, either DAY or NIGHT.

PURE LIQUORS

For medical use, always on hand.

JEWELRY.

A FINE ASSORTMENT OF JEWELRY

under the care of Mr. Richards, a

skilled workman, who will remain with us.

Mr. Richards will attend promptly to all

mending and repairing.

Our prices will be as low as can be

afforded.

DENNIS & CLARK,

North side Main Street,

STANFORD, KENTUCKY.

Will keep constantly on hand and for sale

CHEAP FOR CASH,

CARRIAGES, BUGGIES, ROCKAWAYS,

Spring Wagons, etc.,

of all kinds,

Unequalled in Style and Finish.

REPAIRING DONE PROMPTLY TO

order. Such as painting, smithing, &c.

Don't go elsewhere to have your work done,

when your home mechanics can do it well

enough. TRY US ONCE.

TIN SHOP AND STOVES!

PETER STRAUB,

WEST END STANFORD, KY.

I AM PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS

of tin work at my shop near the Woolen

Factory.

Always on hand and for sale

Heating and Cooking Stoves,

Odd Vessels, &c.

Steam Mill Boilers,

And other mill machinery repaired at all

times.

Tin and Copper Ware

on hand, for sale cheap.

PHILLIP HAHN,

Hustonsville, Kentucky.

MANUFACTURER OF

SADDLES,

Harness, Bridles,

Collars, Whips,

And everything in the saddle line, at the

very lowest figures.

All Work Warranted.

All Orders Promptly Filled.

Highest Cash Prices Paid for Hides.

—3m—

Do You Want a Farm?

600 ACRES

—FOR—

SALE

I OFFER FOR SALE, AT A GREAT

price, my place, situated on a half mile from Stanford, near the Sonoma river;

containing 600 ACRES.

A large frame dwelling, with eight rooms,

double porch, double veranda, and spacious halls. The farm is susceptible of division into two or more tracts.

Wood, water and soil can be found on this

farm, which is as good as any fair average of land in this country.

Terms Easy.

A distilling site, unsurpassed anywhere, is on the land. A bold stream of clear, cold,

never-falling water, and a substantial log house for the distillery is already built. Call on, or address

DAVID GARVIN, or

H. T. HARRIS, Ays,

Stanford, Ky.

16-4f.

WHEAT WANTED
WATERS & DAWSON WENT
the highest market price
bushels of Wheat.

MILLINER
Mrs. L. BEAZLEY,
Fashionable Milliner and Mantuamaker,
Second door west of post office, Stanford, Ky.

The latest Parisian and Metropolitan styles

of dresses, &c.,

CUT AND MADE TO ORDER.

LADIES' and

CHILDREN'S

BONNETS,

HATS, &c.,

Made and trimmed on short notice.

A large stock of FASHIONABLE MILL-

INERY, NOTIONS, &c., on hand and at prices

to suit the times.

ACQUAINTANCE. STEPHEN E. OWLEY.

DUNN & OWSLEY,

Druggists,

Chemists and Pharmacutists,

STANFORD, KENTUCKY.

DEALERS IN

DRUGS,

CHEMICALS,

Paints, Oils,

Dye-Stuffs,

Stationery,

FANCY GOODS,

Sundries,

Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.

PURE LIQUORS

For medical use, always on hand.

JEWELRY.

A FINE ASSORTMENT OF JEWELRY

under the care of Mr. Richards, a

skilled workman, who will remain with us.

Mr. Richards will attend promptly to all

mending and repairing.

Our prices will be as low as can be

afforded.

DENNIS & CLARK,

North side Main Street,

STANFORD, KENTUCKY.

Will keep constantly on hand and for sale

CHEAP FOR CASH,

CARRIAGES, BUGGIES, ROCKAWAYS,

Spring Wagons, etc.,

of all kinds,

Unequalled in Style and Finish.

REPAIRING DONE PROMPTLY TO

order. Such as painting, smithing, &c.

Don't go elsewhere to have your work done,

when your home mechanics can do it well

enough. TRY US ONCE.

TIN SHOP AND STOVES!

PETER STRAUB,

WEST END STANFORD, KY.

I AM PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS

of tin work at my shop near the Woolen

Factory.

Always on hand and for sale

Heating and Cooking Stoves,

Odd Vessels, &c.

Steam Mill Boilers,

And other mill machinery repaired at all

times.

Tin and Copper Ware

on hand, for sale cheap.

PHILLIP HAHN,

Hustonsville, Kentucky.

MANUFACTURER OF

SADDLES,

Harness, Bridles,

Collars, Whips,

And everything in the saddle line, at the

very lowest figures.

All Work Warranted.

All Orders Promptly Filled.

Highest Cash Prices Paid for Hides.

—3m—

Do You Want a Farm?

600 ACRES

—FOR—

SALE